Jesus taught
with authority

TRUE PROPHETS

In Deuteronomy today we hear that God's very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God's mouth. In Mark's Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God's own voice, the Holy One of God. There are, no doubt, both false and true prophets around us today. The whole history of our church is filled with both. Some false prophets were extremely popular and quite well-versed in scripture, and even held positions of church authority. But in today's Gospel we learn that Jesus' fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn't an authority because he was popular or famous. Elsewhere, we also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God's purposes. Today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day. Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God's very words filling our mouths.

Volunteers Needed To Help Us Produce A New Church Pictorial Directory

We are looking for two coordinators to help oversee this project as well as a number of additional volunteers. Chuck West from Lifetouch Church Directories is with us this weekend after each Mass to recruit volunteers and answer any questions you may have about this process. If you have an interest in finding out about being one of the coordinators, or helping us with the directory, please stop by and see Chuck in the Cloister after Mass today or you may call Chuck at 303-462-1670. This is a great opportunity for newer families to get acquainted with others in the parish, while making a very short term commitment. Without the appropriate number of volunteers, we will not be able to move forward with a new directory.

GROCERY GIFT CARD FUND RAISER: Grocery gift cards are sold after all weekend Masses and at the Parish Office during office hours.

Father Liam and Friends:
 On behalf of the CASA kids, their families and the volunteers, we want to thank you and your congregation for helping to create smiles on Christmas morning. Your generous gifts were paired with toys and food baskets that served more than 125 children. We have heard from many of the families who benefited from your generous donations. Please know that you truly made a difference in the lives of these children.
