PEOPLE OF THE COVENANT

If there is one word that stands out in today's readings, it is "covenant." God's faithfulness and goodness serve as examples to us of how to live. Genesis tells the story of Noah and of God's covenant not only with all people, but with all of nature. Never will the cleansing waters of the flood bring their destructive power to all the earth again. The sign, the reminder to both God and nature, is the rainbow in the heavens.

The psalm reminds us of this compassion of God, and begs God to remember us, not because of our goodness, but because of God's goodness and fidelity to the promise. God shows us how to be good, not by decree, but by example.

GROCERY GIFT CARD FUND RAISER: The Shrine Building Fund nets 5% from all grocery gift card sales. Are you participating?

During the Season of Lent, we will not sing an opening hymn. Instead, a cantor will chant the Entrance Antiphon and versicle proper of the day. Please try to use these words as a way of entering into prayer. Our intention is not to silence the voice of the people or to punish you in any way; please continue to sing during the remainder of the Mass. According to paragraph 48 in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (USCCB, 2003), the sung Entrance Antiphon remains the foremost option during the ministers' entrance and may be sung by the cantor alone. Also, There is no hymn of sending forth. The ministers will exit in silence, and, as a sign of respect, we ask that you remain in your places until after the priest and servers have left.

Once again, this is not a punishment. The Season of Lent is a period of austerity and penance, and the Mass should reflect this. The GIRM states: "In Lent the playing of the organ and musical instruments is allowed only to support the singing (exceptions)" (313). Alleluia is never sung or said, and as a rule, the Gloria is not sung or said except on a few feasts. Let this time be a period of purification and renewal so that we can acclaim with great joy the Resurrection of our Lord!
