MINISTERS AT THE ALTAR

A minister at the altar—server, lector, or extraordinary minister of Holy Communion—is a public person representing the Church, and as such, should dress appropriately and modestly. T-shirts, jeans, shorts, tennis shoes, flip-flops and other beachwear are never appropriate apparel for serving at the altar. Women should wear either a dress of modest length and cut or slacks and a blouse. Men should wear at least a collared shirt (preferably with a tie), slacks and dress shoes. Servers should wear a collared shirt, dark pants and dark shoes. A minister dressed inappropriately will not serve.

If you cannot serve on a particular day or if you are going to be absent from a ministry, please call the parish office (542-1788) by noon on the Friday before. This courtesy allows us to plan ahead in your absence.

Please check in when you arrive to serve. Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion need to sign in on the board in the sacristy. Lectors need to pick up the book of petitions and the Lectionary from the sacristy. Servers need to dress. Give yourselves amply time before Mass so that you can prepare for and enter into the celebration of the Eucharist.

Thank you for your cooperation.

REST IN THE LORD

For several weeks we have listened to readings that have recounted just how arduous the work of prophets and disciples can be. In today's Gospel, the Lord Jesus listens to the reports of those he had sent out "two by two" to minister to the people. After the apostles reported what they had done, Jesus, recognizing their fatigue, says, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile" (Mark 6:31). Perhaps this is what the Lord is telling his disciples in the year 2009 as well. We need to pause on our journey of discipleship and simply rest in the Lord. Sunday Mass provides many opportunities for quiet times, particularly during the periods of silence following the readings. Why not take the time today to allow the saving word of the Lord to penetrate your heart during those silent times? Ask the Lord to renew you in body, mind, and spirit for the arduous work of discipleship.
