What Exactly Is the Eve of All Saints Celebration? The Celebration marks the evening before All Saints Day, which is obviously a Holy Day of Obligation for all Catholics that honors our beloved Saints, and provides children and families with a safe and fun alternative to trick-or-treating.

What happens at the Celebration? We start the evening with Mass, wherein the children dress up as their favorite Saint. After Mass we head over to the Parish Hall, which is decorated in lively fall colors, for pizza, snacks, games (with prizes) and TONS OF CANDY! Children also participate in the "Guess the Saint" pageant which always brings the crowd pleasure.

Families, grandparents and many children attend this wonderful, spiritual, and fun event each year. Your children will not be missing out on any candy, and this is a fantastic way to spend time together as a family. Come and see for yourself!

Donations of Candy Needed: Donations of bags of individually wrapped candies are requested to fill the goodie bags for the children at the Eve of All Saints Celebration. Donations will be accepted in the Parish Office. Thank you for your generosity!

First Parent Compulsory Class on October 24th: If your child or youth will be receiving a Sacrament this year, you will be required to attend 4 Parent Classes held on the following dates: October 24th, December 12th, January 23rd and February 27th. Classes are from 9:00-11:00 am in the Hospitality Room and attendance will be taken.

Dates for the Baptismal Classes in November: Baptism preparation classes will be held on Tuesday, November 3rd, and Tuesday, November 10th, in the Office Conference Room from 6:30-8:30 pm. Families who wish to have their child baptized must attend both dates, as well as Godparents. For more information regarding the Sacrament of Baptism and its requirements, please call Sarah in the Parish Office - 542-1788 x 11.

Knights of Columbus Breakfast is next Sunday, October 25th, from 8:00 am to 12:00 noon in the Parish Hall. See you there!

TOO MUCH INFORMATION!

There is a common expression: “Too much information!” We usually use it when people tell us details about their lives that we don’t want or need to know. Today, when James and John ask Jesus a simple question, making their request for places of honor in the kingdom, a simple answer might have been in order. Instead, as he often does, Jesus answers a question with a question; today it’s about drinking the cup of suffering. Then, once the others are indignant over James and John’s outrageous request, he proceeds to give them what may have been “too much information” for followers who were simply interested in the pursuit of glory. But this information, though it can sometimes seem “too much” for us, is essential for our lives as disciples. In Isaiah, in Hebrews, and in Mark today, we learn this information: it is in suffering, in weakness, in self-giving service to others, that we come to understand the kingdom. It is the information we need to find our place and come to be honored in the reign of God.

Attention All Ministers: I am in the process of evaluating the ministry scheduling program. I would like for all ministers to contact me, Joe Chrisman, at the parish office (542-1788 or joec@puebloshrine.org) with your name, ministry, and mass time(s). If you wish to remain on the schedule, be taken off the schedule, or wish to be added to the schedule, please let me know. I hope to have the program updated by November 15, 2009, so please do not delay. Remember this is for ALL ministers in the parish. If you do not contact me, I will assume that you no longer want to be on the schedule.

Check out Joe Chrisman’s new liturgical music blog at

Choir News: It is never too late to join the choir. We are in need of voices, men and women, young and not so young, in order to sustain our music program. We meet on Wednesday evenings from 6:15-7:45 pm in the church. If you cannot commit to the entire year, consider joining for a season. We will begin Christmas preparations on Wednesday, November 4th. Please take this consideration to prayer.

Called to service

Prayer for Our Troops

*Lord, hold our troops
In your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families
For the selfless acts they perform
For us in our time of need, and
Bring them home safely.
May their sacrifices bring about
A lasting and just peace in those lands.
I ask this in the name of Jesus,
Our Lord and Savior. Amen.*
